LOUISVILLE YIELDS UPSETS

SUPPOSED GOOD THINGS FAIL TO MATERIAL-IZE AT CHURCHILL DOWNS.

Jacquelina Loses to Rubia Granda as Result of Inexperience of Her Pilot-Otilo Takes Measure of Mamie Algol.

Louisville, Ky., October 7.—Clear weather permitted improved racing at Churchill Downs this afternoon. The track, however, remained in bad shape. The going was stiff and holding and it required a sturdy horse to run successfully. The card was given over to mud runners and the even caliber of the starters resulted in interesting sport and spirited speculation. Supposed good things were numerous in the different races and as usual most of them disappointed their backers. About the worst upset of the day came with the defeat of Jacquelina in the second race. She was an overwhelming favorite and much the best of those starting, but the inexperience of T. Nolan encompassed her defeat, Rubia Granda, a first-time starter here, and the medium of a betting coup by T. W. Flynn and his friends, landed the purse, thanks principally to the good judgment of jockey A. Thomas. Owner Flynn also had designs on the purse in the fourth race with Waponoca and in this instance he was nulucky to lose, as the horse seemed best and would have won but for the excess ground that jockey Keogh forced him to cover. William Shields and his connections lost heavily in various parts of the country, according to report, through the failure of Alfred the Great in this race. It was the first start of Alfred the Great in the Shields colors and his connections felt sanguine of success. The colt stumbled badly soon after the start, thereby losing much ground. Mettie Bereaud, the winner, ran in improved form and just lasted.

Another hard jolt for the followers of favorites came in the closing dash with the defeat of the odds-on choice. Manuel Algol, by Otilo. The winner led the favorite throughout and outstayed her in the final drive.

The colors of George J. Long, who is acting as steward for the Kentucky State Raeing Commission, Another hard Jolt for the followers of favorites came in the closing dash with the defeat of the odds-on choice. Manule Algol, by Otilo. The winner led the favorite throughout and outstayed her in the final drive.

The colors of George J. Long, who is acting as steward for the Kentucky State Racing Commission, were carried to victory by Embellish in the third race, it was the first purse that any of the Long horses had carried off this fall and the victory of Embellish was popular. J. C. Milam's Labold found conditions exactly to his liking in the fifth race and led six other youngsters for the entire trip, the surprise of the race coming when James Mc outgamed Ilma, the favorite, for second place.

Jockey Fowers is much concerned over a printed report that he would retire from the saddle and leave soon for his home near Buffalo, N. Y., where he owns a farm. 'There is absolutely no truth in the story I will leave the saddle.' said he. 'I am under engagement to ride for H. R. Brandt during the Kentucky meetings and at Jacksonville, where Mr. Brandt will race this winter. I am at present in correspondence with trainer Thomas Healey, who has been commissioned by James Mcormick, now in Germany, to engage some rider to go abroad and if the offer they make me is up to my expectations I will go abroad next season. My present weight is 112 and I will have plenty of opportunity to ride this winter.'

E. R. Bradley will ship his crack two-year-old filly, Love-Not, to Baltimore tomorrow in charge of trainer William Hurley to be a starter in the Matron Stakes for fillies to be run over the Pimlico track one week from tomorrow. Love-Not's weight in this race will be 108 pounds and the stable jockey, J. Reid, will be sent on to pilot her. She will be returned in ample time to fill her engagements in some of the stakes she is entered for at Latonia. King's Daughter was given a stiff mile gallopa fire fre last race, going the Gistance in 1:48 in handy fashion. The McDowell crack, just as she emerged form the stable, picked up damage.

T. C. McDowell will ship tomorrow the fast filly, Ellen-a-Dale, to his Ashland Farm near Lexington.

She will be retired to the stud and mated next spring to citizer Rock Sand or Octagon.

Jockey B. Steele, by landing Olivia Miekle in the opening race, scored his first jockey triumph.

W. O. Parmer, who has been here for several days, left for Nashvilie this moraing.

There were several arrivals today from New York, mostly race followers who came on to witness the racing and familiarize themselves with the mutuel system of betting. The eastern owners failed to take a purse during the afternoon.

The horses of W. F. Schulte to be disposed of by auction October 15 in the Churchill Downs paddock number twenty-three head.

CRYSTAL MAID'S POOR FORM EXPLAINED.

Lexington. Ky., October 7.—John T. Ireland, owner of Cherryola and Starport, has turned four yearlings over to W. L. Lewis at the Kentucky Association track. One is a chestnut colt by Star Shoot—Last Cherry, the dam of Cherryola: another a chestnut colt by Star Shoot—Blue Danube, the dam of La Pucelle, and he also has two other youngsters, one a brown filly by Ethelbert and the other a chestnut gelding by Cherryola's sire. Tanzmeister. Mr. Lewis has turned out his brother's mare. Crystal Maid, and the 1909 Latonia Oaks winner will be fired before winter sets in. She has a bowed tendon, but trainer Lewis thinks the application of the iron and a winter's rest will bring the daughter of Pirate of Penzance around so that she will in due time race with credit again. As a three-year-old Crystal Maid showed excellent form, but this season she ran disappointingly.

RAIN AFFECTS MARLBORO PATRONAGE.

Marlboro, Md., October 7.—Only five races were run at the Marlboro track this afternoon for the reason that the second race was declared off because it had been reduced to a two-horse field by scratches. The fields in the five races run were for the most part light and the result was that the sport during the afternoon was tame, all the winners getting hone first by big margins at short prices.

The feature of the afternoon was the riding of Fain, who piloted Mon Ami, Rye Straw and Dan de Noyles to victory. Margaret, one of the starters in the closing race, was thrown at the first turn and Shoemaker had a leg slightly injured. The attendance was the poorest of the meeting, owing to cloudy weather, which followed a rainstorm that lasted for many hours. Contrary to general expectations the going was fairly good.

NEW CASTLE WINS A RACE.

London, Eng., October 7.—The Coventry Plate, a handicap of 500 sovereigns, for three-year olds and haward, distance three-quarters of a mile, was won at Kempton Park today by H. P. Whitney's New Castle, by Meddler—Homespun. Galleon was second and Pyx third. Six horses ran.

WEATHER CLEARS, CROWD COMES OUT.

Pleasing Patronage Follows Return of Pleasant Weather at Fort Erie Track, Weather at Fort Erie Track.

Buffalo, N. Y., October 7.—For the first time since the opening day, racing at Fort Erie was held under bright skies this afternoon and the improvement in the weather brought a decided improvement in the weather brought a decided improvement in the weather brought a decided improvement in the under bright skies this afternoon and the improvement in track conditions, the going being deep, stiff and heavy. Good sport was provided, however, three of the winners being forced to stand hard stretch drives to win by small margins in the closing strides. Rash, Live Wire and Spellbound were wiming favorites and Jockey A. Walsh had the mount on the last two.

In the six-furlongs handicap, the feature race of the program, Spellbound picked up 118 pounds and won in handsome fashion. Mexoana, the favorite in this race, failed to finish among the first three, both La Salle and Lady Irma leading her at the finish besides the winner. Baron Esher came back and duplicated his victory of Wednesday. He beat Rio Grande a neck in the closing race and displayed rare gameness in the final drive. G. Archibald's finish on Cooney K. in the third race was chiefly responsible for that horse's victory. With a less capable jockey it is doubtful if Cooney K. would have finished in the money. Rash and Planutess furnished a stirring finish in the second race. They fought it out throughout the final furlong and it was only in the last stride that Rash got his nose in front.

It is said that the Metropolitan Racing Association will install a pari-mutuel machine for their meeting which begins at Dufferin Park tomorrow. The Idea is to feel out the public on this betting method and if the management finds that local race-goers take to the mutuel system of speculation they will adopt the machines next year.

Jockey Taplin's injuries sustained yesterday were not as bad as supposed. The lad escaped with a dislocated hip, which was sprung back into place at the hospital last night and he will be up and about again shortly.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Bucket Brigade went lame in a recent trial at Churchill Downs.

Jockey Gaugel has been indefinitely suspended for ough riding at Ogden.

Love-Not, E. R. Bradley's good two-year-old filly, has been showing considerable unruliness in her work at Churchill Downs and her nervousness has made her training difficult.

made her training difficult.

George Rose, Samuel Shaen, Wilbur A. Porter, of Pittsburg, Ray Scherer, John F. Bartlett, Walter Congdon, Frank Bray and William Oliver were among recent arrivals at Marlboro.

Jeter Walden, one of the oldest trainers on the American turf, died recently at his residence at Sheepshead Bay, N. Y., after a long illness. He had not been active in his profession for some years, but in the old days he was a well-known figure in American racing.

J. G. Greener will ship to Louisville in a few days two yearling fillies by My Boy II. Walter S. Hopkins will winter the youngsters, as John C. Ferriss, the Greener trainer, will campaign a stable at Juarez. Mex. One of the fillies is out of a sister to Oiseau and the other out of a sister to Oiseau and the other out of a sister to Oleflant, dam of Countless.

C. R. Ellison, who owned many good horses in the past, is on the lookout for a good horse or two to race in his colors the coming winter, according to reports from Louisville, where he now is. What
